- The Source for Women, Spring Branch<sup>1</sup>
- Hope Cottage, El Paso

<sup>1</sup> Although the Initial Site Visit took place in Q4 of FY 2011-12, the new Service Provider site was not effective until Q1 of FY 2012-13

INITIAL SITE VISIT REPORT

Site Name: The Source for Women, Spring Branch
Address: 8312 Long Point
Houston, TX 77055
Site #: 1005
Director: Cynthia Wenz
Counties Served: Harris
Date of Visit: August 10, 2012
Visit Conducted By: Lesley Kutac, Evaluator

I. Facility

General Observations: Counseling areas, office space, equipment, lavatories, and safety features were inspected and found to be in compliance. At the time of the visit, and prior to the public opening, the site was not yet equipped with smoke detectors, fire extinguishers, or a "No Smoking" sign. The waiting area windows had not yet been treated to ensure client confidentiality.

II. Program Profile

General Observations: It was determined through interviews that the hours of operation are Tuesday and Thursday, from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm, Wednesday, from 9:00 am to 6:00 pm, and by appointment on Monday, Friday, and Saturday. Clients are seen by appointment and as walk-ins.

The Source for Women provides all pregnancy and parenting services free of charge. Most of their referrals are by word of mouth and from previous clients.

III. Corporate Administration

General Observations: At the time of the visit, a copy of the Policy and Procedure Manual had not been moved to the new site. Grievance and Non-Discrimination Policies were needed for clients to review and Material Safety Data Sheets were needed for staff reference. A secure area for client files was in the process of completion. Spiritual materials were not yet labeled and separated from non-spiritual materials.

IV. Program Highlights

General Observations: The Source for Women, Spring Branch is the organization's third site in the Houston area. All three sites provide services to women in crisis pregnancies and parenting families in need. They provide support, classes, materials assistance, and community referrals. The Spring Branch location has a licensed professional counselor onsite. They also provide sonograms, STD testing, and pregnancy testing.

*Note: The following paragraphs describe a typical case successfully managed by the Service Provider evaluated in the report prior to its enrollment in the Texas Alternative to Abortion Services Program. It is shared for the limited purpose of illustrating the quality and scope of the Service Provider's work prior to its participation in the Program. The client has given her consent for her story to be included in this report, and her name has been changed to protect her privacy.

To understand my story, you have to go back several years. I was fourteen... my mom and her boyfriend would go out to the night clubs, and began dropping me off at a teen club about a half hour from where we lived.

After a couple of weeks of going to the club, I won tickets to a major concert that was being held there. My best friend and I decided to go. The music was loud and everyone was having a great time... it was fun! A little while after the concert began, I excused myself to the restroom and when I entered my stall, the lights went out. I was confused, and then suddenly guys busted through my stall door. They attacked me, and as one held a gun to my head, I was raped by three of them. Girls that came in the restroom afterward thought I was crying over a boy.

Months later, when it was obvious I was pregnant, my mother threw a phone book at me and told me to look up abortion. Instead, I chose to live in a maternity home and place my daughter in an open adoption. My mother abandoned me after that and I went to live with my aunt.

A couple years later I became pregnant by my boyfriend but decided to have an abortion when he left me. In my next relationship, I experienced a miscarriage and two unplanned pregnancies. I gave birth to my beautiful children, a son, now age 6, and a daughter, now age 4. It was during my second unplanned pregnancy that I found The Source.

I was working, providing financially for my son and his abusive, unemployed father. I was in complete crisis mode and desperate. Child Protective Services had already been in my life because I was living in a domestic violence situation. They returned a year later to take both of my children after my boyfriend's family left the door unlocked and my then 3 year old son wandered out into the apartment complex while I was napping.

The Source offered hope, help, and change. What I remember most from my first visit is how friendly everyone was. The classes and counseling really helped me work through some of what I was facing at the time, and they gave me a crib and other items for my babies. Two years later, I finally chose to leave the physically and emotionally abusive relationship that I was in with my children's father. Not long after, I reconnected with my ex-boyfriend. He and I have been together for two years now. Although we have our ups and downs, I'm so thankful that I'm finally in a healthy relationship with a man who will make a great husband and who is already a wonderful father figure and provider for my children.

I came to The Source to be a better person. Now in my first planned pregnancy, I know that I must also take care of myself in order to take care of my family. I'm trying to learn what that means, inside and out.

I NEED The Source. If I didn't come to The Source for my weekly visit I probably would've continued to live life as I previously had, and would probably still be miserable! I'm not here just to go to the classes, to take notes, or to receive assistance; I'm using what I'm learning in the real world, as a mother, and soon, as a wife.

Since we all learn from our experiences and the environment we come from, I've realized that I must make a conscious effort to not follow unhealthy patterns from before. In the past I've made similar decisions that my mother, who abandoned me at 14 and is bipolar, had made. My biological father has never been in my life and denies paternity, though I know he has a family and that I have some half-siblings. My mother continues to jump from guy to guy, and I know that I don't want that for myself. I look at my past and it's almost like looking in the mirror and seeing my mother's life.

I feel like life is a test. I've always lived in the moment, not thinking through my decisions or about the consequences of those decisions. I didn't take responsibility; I accepted what came, as it came... But I'm done with that. For the first time, I truly consider consequences and am being proactive about seeking the help I need to break old cycles.

My boyfriend and I are both attending counseling. I am learning so much about relationships through the classes at The Source. I'm also learning about raising healthy children, breastfeeding, bonding, parent attachment, and more from their parenting course. I'm looking forward to marrying Andrew and growing as a mother to my two children and this new baby. I am so thankful for The Source and would recommend them to any woman in need!
